CONSIGNMENT EE

THE COIN CABINET YOU HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TO OWN

714 Coin Cabinet. This exquisite cabinet was built by a master craftsman. The outer walls and door is El Salvador mahogany. The trays are made of selected oak. The rails on which the trays slide are locust. Height from floor to top 39½", across 20", depth 14¾". A base on four legs (separated from cabinet) stands 8" from floor. A door with lock and key opens to 25 trays measuring 14-3/8" x 11-3/8 x ½" in depth, in addition to a top drawer 3⅓" in depth and a bottom drawer 2½" in depth. Some of the trays are lined with felt and others with blotting paper. This was found to absorb moisture depending upon the coins stored. Some of the trays also have inserts cut out with holes for large cents, nickels, etc. which, of course, are removable. All of the trays and drawers have brass pulls and have been numbered.

Comparison with anything similar is impossible, although The Numismatist this month had an 'ad' for a six drawer cabinet at $125. We have had the advice of cabinet makers who have told us it would cost $300 to build today. The successful bidder will have to pay the cost of crating (about $10) and transportation.

CONSIGNMENT I

COINS OF THE WORLD—MOSTLY CROWN SIZE

This is the second installment of the magnificent European Collection being offered at auction. We now have enough material released by the Customs authorities to offer further installments in our May 27-28th and June 24-25th Sales.

In addition, we will shortly have in our possession a collection of approximately 900 MASONIC ITEMS including several unique (as are most) jeweled pieces of Frederick the Great. Before deciding on the disposition of this wonderful collection, we would like to hear from collectors of this interesting series with a view of examining the material and purchasing the collection outright. The collector would have to be a man of means as we understand the collection is worth considerable. Correspondence will be treated in the strictest confidence.—F.J.K.
